

BBC LEARNING ENGLISH

Real Easy English worksheet

Socialising

1. Match the questions with the replies.

Questions

- a) Do you like spending time with friends?
- b) Do you like big parties or do you prefer small events?
- c) Do you get embarrassed when you meet new people?
- d) How do you feel about spending time alone?

Replies

- 1) I prefer small events. I like to be able to talk to everyone.
- 2) I love spending time with my friends. I always have plans.
- 3) I don't like spending lots of time alone. I get lonely!
- 4) I'm often embarrassed when I meet new people. I don't like it.

2. Complete the gaps using the pictures to help. (Images: Getty)

a. I hate parties because I don't like s _ _ _ t _ _ . It's boring.

b. I can feel a bit a _ _ _ _ _ when I meet new people.

c. I have lots i _ c _ _ _ _ with my new colleague, so I think we'll be good friends.

BBC LEARNING ENGLISH

Real Easy English worksheet

Socialising

3. Now you answer the questions. You can use the replies in question 1 to help you.

Example:

Do you like spending time with friends?

I love spending time with my friends. I always have plans.

- a) Do you like spending time with friends?
- b) Do you like big parties or do you prefer small events?
- c) Do you get embarrassed when you meet new people?
- d) How do you feel about spending time alone?

Make notes here. Then practise saying your answers out loud.

⇒ Useful vocabulary: socialise, small talk, embarrassed, awkward, have (something) in common

BBC LEARNING ENGLISH

Real Easy English worksheet

Socialising

Answers

1.

a2, b1, c4, d3

2.

a. small talk, b. awkward, c. in common

Are you a teacher? Here are some extension activities:

- Role-play an interviewer and interviewee.
- Students discuss the topic with a partner. Then swap partners to report what the previous partner said.
- Get students to write a short paragraph on the topic.